Subject to any applicable law and/or rules, Listed Securities may also be traded outside the Market on which they are admitted to trading
36. Any Equity Security or Debt Security (other than Listed Securities and/or Securities held or evidenced in dematerialised or uncertificated form, the register of which is maintained in a Central Securities Depository) may only be transferred by an instrument in writing in, which instrument shall be in any form that is accepted by the Directors (together with such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require as evidence of the right of the transferor to make the transfer, and, if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other Person on his behalf, the authority of that Person so to do), and which instrument of transfer shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the Equity Security or Debt Security until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members or the Register of Debentures, as applicable, in respect thereof. In no case may a part of a Share constitute the object of a transfer or transmission. The instrument of transfer must be delivered to the Company at the Registered Office or at such other place as the Board may from time to time determine for registration purposes and, in respect of a transfer of Shares, must be accompanied by the certificates of the Shares to which it relates.

37. In the case of an Equity Security (other than an Equity Security which has been admitted to listing and/or trading on a Market), the Directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer and refuse to register the transfer if

- (a) duty in terms of the Duty on Documents and Transfers Act (Chapter 364 of the Laws of Malta), if applicable, has not been paid in relation to the instrument of transfer;
- (b) the instrument of transfer is not left at the Registered Office or at such other place as the Directors may from time to time determine for registration purposes or is not accompanied by the Share certificates of the Shares to which it relates and/or such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require as evidence of the right of the transferor to make the transfer (and, if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other Person on his behalf, the authority of that Person so to do); or
- (c) the instrument of transfer is not in respect of only one (1) class of Shares; or
- (d) the instrument of transfer is in respect of Shares pledged in terms of a pledge agreement duly notified to the Company and the instrument of transfer is not accompanied by the pledgee's consent to the transfer, or
- (e) the instrument of transfer is in respect of Shares the transfer of which has been prohibited by law or by an order of the court

If the Directors refuse to register a transfer, they shall within two (2) months of the date on which the transfer is lodged with the Company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal and except in the case of fraud, return to him the instrument of transfer. The Company may retain any instrument of transfer or a notarised copy thereof that is duly registered

38. The registration of transfers of the Company's Securities may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty (30) days in any one (1) calendar year.

PROVIDED that the foregoing paragraph shall not apply to Listed Securities, in which case the suspension of registration of transfers shall be determined by any applicable law or regulation.

39. In the case of the death of a Member, his Shares shall devolve upon his successors by will or by operation of law, as the case may be, but nothing herein contained shall release the Person or Persons to whom the Shares shall devolve, whether sole or joint, from any liability in respect of any Share solely or jointly held by him/them.
40. Any Person becoming entitled to a Listed Security as a consequence of the death of a Member shall, upon producing such evidence of his title as the relevant Central Securities Depository and/or Market may from time to time require, have the right to be registered himself as the holder of the Listed Security or to transfer such Listed Security.
41. Any Person becoming entitled to a Share in consequence of the death of a Member shall, upon producing satisfactory evidence of his title as the Directors may from time to time require, have the right to be registered himself as the holder of the Share or to make such transfer thereof as the deceased Member would have himself been entitled.
42. Where, in the case referred to in the preceding Article, a Person so becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he elects to have another Person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that Person a transfer of the Share. All the provisions relating to the transfer of Shares in these Articles shall be applicable to such transfer.
- PROVIDED that the Directors, in the case of Shares other, may at any time give notice requiring any such Person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the Share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety (90) days, the Directors may thereafter withhold payments of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the Share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.
43. A Person becoming entitled to a Share by reason of the death of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other rights and advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the Share, except that he shall not before being registered as a Member in respect of the Share be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.
44. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, except by way of transmission causa mortis, any share options granted under share option schemes to the holders of such options are not in any way transferable and can only be exercised by the holders to whom they were originally issued

FORFEITURE OR SURRENDER OF SHARES

45. If a Member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any call or part thereof remains unpaid, require payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued thereon, by means of a notice which shall also name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen (14) days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed, the Shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to forfeiture.
46. If the requirements of such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any Share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect, or otherwise be surrendered in favour of the Company by the Member to whom the said notice is addressed, if the Directors accept such surrender. The Member shall however retain the right to all dividends declared before the call was made and which have not been paid

47. When any Share has been forfeited in accordance with these Articles, notice of the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the holder of the Share or to the Person entitled to the Share by transmission, as the case may be, and an entry of such notice having been given and of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register of Members relating to the Share; but the provisions of this Article are for guidance only and no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.
48. A forfeited or surrendered Share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and the Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the Share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer in favour of the Person to whom the Share is sold or disposed of, who shall thereupon be registered as a holder of the Share. At any time before a sale or disposal, the forfeiture or surrender may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors may deem fit.

PROVIDED that while forfeited or surrendered Shares remain with, or under the control of the Company, they shall carry no voting rights and shall be subject to the provisions of article 109 of the Act.

49. A Person whose Shares have been forfeited or surrendered shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited or surrendered Shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all the moneys, which, at the date of the forfeiture, were due and payable by him to the Company in respect of the Shares. His liability shall however cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the Shares.

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

50. The Company may by extraordinary resolution:
- (a) increase its authorised share capital by such amount as the resolution prescribes;
 - (b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into Shares of larger amount than its existing Shares;
 - (c) subject to the provisions of these Articles, sub-divide its Shares, or any of them, into Shares of smaller amount and the resolution may determine that, as between the Shares resulting from the sub-division, any of them may have any preference or advantage as compared with the others;
 - (d) cancel Shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any Person and diminish the amount to its Share capital by the amount of the Shares so cancelled; and/or
 - (e) reduce its share capital, so long as this is superior to the minimum prescribed by law, any capital redemption reserve and any share premium account.

PLEDGING OF SECURITIES

51. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Act and to the applicable terms of issue, any

Equity Securities and/or Debt Securities of the Company may be pledged by the registered holder thereof in favour of any Person as security for any obligation; provided that any terms of issue of Securities may provide that the securities issued pursuant thereto may not be the subject of a pledge.

- (b) Upon the Company being notified of such a pledge agreement, the Company shall record that fact in the relevant register, and the Company shall recognise all rights validly granted to any third parties and shall act according to and consistently with the terms of such agreement in all matters. Additionally, the Company shall also notify any Central Securities Depository that has been delegated the duties of maintaining and updating the relevant register the Securities.
- (c) In the case of a pledge of Shares, in so far as and to the extent that such a pledge agreement validly vests third parties with rights pertaining to the Shares normally exercisable by the Members, such rights shall be exercisable by the third parties as though they were the Members to the exclusion of the registered Member or Members.

REGISTERS

- 52. Any register for Securities shall be kept at the Registered Office. Any register may be kept on magnetic tape or in accordance with some other appropriate mechanical or electronic system, provided that legible evidence can be produced therefrom to satisfy the requirements of the applicable law and of these Articles.
- 53. The Directors may delegate the duties relating to the maintaining and updating any of its registers to a Central Securities Depository or any other equivalent entity.

GENERAL MEETINGS

- 54. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the annual general meetings of the Company shall be held in Malta, unless otherwise resolved by the Directors of the Company, and at such time as the Directors shall appoint
- 55. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be extraordinary general meetings and be held in Malta, unless otherwise resolved by the Directors of the Company, and at such time as the Directors shall appoint.
- 56. The Directors may convene an extraordinary general meeting whenever they think fit. Extraordinary general meetings may also be convened on such requisition, or in default, may be convened by such requisitionists as provided by article 129 of the Act. If at any time there are not sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any Director, or any Member of the Company, may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings may be convened by the Directors.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- 57. A general meeting of the Company shall be deemed not to have been duly convened unless at least fourteen (14) days' prior notice has been issued in writing to all Members entitled to receive such notice.

PROVIDED that a general meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding having been called at shorter notice than that specified in this Article, be deemed to have been duly called if agreed by all Members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting.

58. A notice convening a general meeting shall contain:

- (a) the date, time of commencement of the meeting and venue of the general meeting, together with the proposed agenda for the general meeting;
- (b) a clear and precise description of the procedures that Members must comply with in order to be able to participate in and to vote at the general meeting, including the procedure for voting by proxy, notably the proxy forms to be used and the means by which the Company is prepared to accept electronic notifications of the appointment of proxy holders (if any), and where the Company offers the facility for Members to vote by electronic means, the procedures for doing so; and
- (c) indicate where and how the full, unabridged text of the documents to be submitted to the general meeting (including, where applicable, the annual report) and of any draft resolutions may be obtained, unless the draft resolutions are included as part of the notice itself;

59. A notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify the meeting as such and a notice convening a meeting to pass an extraordinary resolution shall specify the intention to propose the text of the resolution as an extraordinary resolution and the principal purpose, effect and scope thereof.

60. Notice of every general meeting shall be given to:

- (a) Members, and
- (b) the Directors; and
- (c) the auditor/s for the time being of the Company

No other Persons shall be entitled to receive notice of general meetings.

61. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any Person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of a meeting

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

62. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also that is transacted at an annual general meeting with the exception of:

- (a) declaring a dividend,
- (b) the consideration of the annual audited financial statements,
- (c) the consideration of the reports of the Directors and auditors,
- (d) the election of directors in place of those retiring or resigning or being removed, and
- (e) the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.

63. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present, in Person or by proxy, at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided a Member or Members, present in Person or by proxy, entitled to attend and vote at the meeting and holding in aggregate not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the paid up voting share capital of the Company shall constitute a quorum.
64. If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of a general meeting, the general meeting shall stand adjourned to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not yet present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the Member or Members present shall constitute a quorum. The adjourned meeting may be convened by shorter notice than that required by Article 57, provided that the first meeting was duly convened, that no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except such business as shall have been specified in the agenda for the original convocation of the meeting, and that the Company provides at least ten (10) days' notice of the adjourned meeting, which notice shall state that Members present as aforesaid for the adjourned meeting shall form a quorum.
65. The Chairman of a general meeting may, with the consent of any general meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the general meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
66. The Chairman of the Board shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he shall not be present within twenty (20) minutes from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, or is unwilling to act, the Deputy Chairman (if any) shall act as Chairman of the meeting. If the Deputy Chairman is not present at the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall elect one (1) of their number, to be chairman of the meeting.
67. If at any meeting no Director is willing to act as chairman or if no Director is present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the Members shall choose one (1) of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
68. At the commencement of any general meeting, whether annual or extraordinary, the Chairman may set out to the meeting the procedure which shall be adopted for the proceedings of that meeting. Such procedure shall be binding on the meeting.
69. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unattended or unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
70. At any general meeting a resolution put to a vote shall be determined and decided by a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded, before or on the declaration of the result of a show of hands, by:

- (a) the Chairman; or
- (b) by at least three (3) Members present in Person or by proxy; or
- (c) any Member or Members present in Person or by proxy and representing in the aggregate not less than ten percent (10%) of the total voting power of all Members having the right to vote at that meeting; or
- (d) a Member or Members present in Person or by proxy holding Shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting, being Shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than ten percent (10%) of the total sum paid up on all the Shares conferring that right

Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the minute book is made, it shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without need for the proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution; provided that where a resolution requires a particular majority in value, the resolution shall not be deemed to have been passed on a show of hands by the required majority unless there be present at that meeting whether in Person or by proxy, a number of Members holding in the aggregate the required majority as aforesaid

- 71. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- 72. Except in the case where a poll is demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded
- 73. In the case of equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote
- 74. A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the Chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that for which a poll has been demanded may be proceed with pending the taking of the poll
- 75. A Member's right to vote may be exercised by a Member in Person or by proxy. Subject to any rights or restrictions attaching to any class or classes of Shares, on a show of hands a Member present in Person or by proxy shall have one (1) vote independently of the number of Shares held or represented. On poll a Member present in Person shall have one (1) vote for every Share of which he is the registered holder, while a proxy shall have one (1) vote for each Share for which he holds a valid proxy form.
- 76. Any Person acting as a proxy holder may hold a proxy from more than one (1) Member without limitation as to the number of Members so represented. Where a proxy holder holds proxies from several Members, he may cast votes for a certain Member differently from votes cast for another Member. In the case of voting by a show of hands, a proxy who has been mandated by several Members and instructed to vote by some Members in favour of a resolution and by others against the same resolution, shall have one (1) vote for and one (1) vote against the resolution.

77. No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of his Shares have been paid
78. No objection shall be raised to the qualifications of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

PROXIES

79. Every Person entered into the Register of Members shall be entitled to appoint one (1) Person to act as proxy holder to attend and vote at a general meeting instead of him. The proxy holder shall enjoy the same rights to speak and ask questions in the general meeting as those to which the member thus represented would be entitled.
80. A proxy holder shall not transfer his proxy to another Person. Where, however, a proxy holder is a legal Person, it may exercise the powers conferred upon it through a duly appointed corporate representative
81. The appointment of a proxy shall be by an instrument substantially in the following form or in a form as near thereto as circumstances permit:

83. Such instrument of proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or his attorney, duly authorised in writing, or if such appointment is by a government or corporation, under its common seal or under the hand of some officer duly authorised in its behalf, but any Member may appoint a proxy by written instrument, including by facsimile or electronic mail. The instrument appointing a proxy may contain a direction to the proxy to vote for or against a particular resolution or resolutions but unless such a direction be given the proxy may vote as he thinks fit; and an instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to include the power to demand, join or concur in demanding a poll on behalf of the appointer not be entitled to vote in respect thereof. The provisions of this and the immediately preceding Article shall apply mutatis mutandis to the revocation of the appointment of a proxy.

86. Where a Member specifies in the proxy form how his proxy is to vote, the proxy form itself shall constitute the vote on condition that the appointed proxy attends the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

ORDINARY AND EXTRAORDINARY RESOLUTIONS

87. An ordinary resolution of the Company in general meeting shall be deemed to have been validly carried if consented to by a Member or Members having the right to attend and vote at such meeting holding in aggregate not less than fifty-one percent (51%) in nominal value of the Shares represented and entitled to vote at such meeting.

88. An extraordinary resolution of the Company in general meeting shall be deemed to have been validly carried if:

- (a) it has been taken at a general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose the text of the resolution as an extraordinary resolution and the principal purpose thereof has been duly given; and
- (b) is consented to by a Member or Members holding in aggregate not less than seventy-five percent (75%) in nominal value of the Shares represented and entitled to vote at the meeting and at least fifty-one percent (51%) in nominal value of all the Shares conferring that right

PROVIDED that if only one (1) of the aforesaid majorities is obtained, another meeting shall be convened within thirty (30) days for the purposes of taking a fresh vote on the proposed resolution. At the second meeting, the resolution shall be deemed to have been validly carried if it has been passed by a Member or Members having the right to attend and vote at the meeting holding in the aggregate not less than seventy-five percent (75%) in nominal value of the Shares represented and entitled to vote at the meeting. However, if more than half (in nominal value) of all the Shares having the right to vote at the meeting are represented at that second meeting, a simple majority (in nominal value) of such Shares so represented shall suffice

89. An extraordinary resolution shall be required for the following:

- (a) any deletion, addition and/or amendment to the Memorandum or Articles (provided that so long as any of the Company's Securities are admitted to listing on the Prospects MTF, the prior written authorisation of the Exchange shall also be required for any such deletion, addition and/or amendment to the Memorandum or Articles);
- (b) any reduction of the issued capital of the Company;
- (c) the winding up of the Company;

DIRECTORS

90. The administration and management of the Company shall be vested in the Board.
91. All Directors shall be individuals.
92. The Directors of the Company shall be elected on an individual basis by ordinary resolution of the Company in general meeting. The order of priority of the said ordinary resolutions shall be determined and decided by lot. The procedures for the election of Directors shall be established by the Company in general meeting from time to time.
93. An election of Directors shall take place at every annual general meeting of the Company, unless circumstances otherwise require (in which case any reference herein to the annual general meeting shall be construed as a reference to any meeting of the Company).
94. The Company shall grant a period of at least fourteen (14) days, to Members to propose nominations of candidates for the election of Directors.
95. All nominations of Directors shall, on pain of nullity:
 - (a) state the period for which the proposed Director is purported to be elected;
 - (b) be submitted to the Company Secretary, on the form prescribed by the Company;
 - (c) be submitted no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the general meeting appointed for the election of Directors,
 - (d) be signed by the proposed Director as evidence of his/her acceptance of the said nomination, and
 - (e) be signed by each Member making the nomination.
96. The Company Secretary shall disregard any nomination form which does not comply with the provisions of Article 95.
97. In the event that there are as many nominations as there are vacancies or less, no elections will take place and those nominees will be automatically elected Directors.
98. Unless appointed or elected for a longer or shorter period, Directors appointed and/or elected pursuant to these Articles shall hold office until the conclusion of the next following annual general meeting and shall be automatically eligible for re-election by the Company in general meeting, without the need for nomination. No Director may be appointed or elected for a period exceeding three (3) years.

PROVIDED that Directors who cease to be Directors for any reason other than the lapse of their term of office shall not be automatically eligible for re-election but may be nominated by any Member in terms of the foregoing Articles.
99. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, if none of the Directors elected by ordinary resolution in terms of the Articles satisfy the independence and competence criteria prescribed by the Prospects MTF Rules, the Board shall have the right to appoint an additional two (2) Directors that satisfy such criteria. Such appointments shall be made by the Directors during their first Board meeting after the annual general meeting and such Directors shall serve on the Board until the next annual general meeting, and shall be automatically eligible for re-election. Should such appointments cause the number of Directors on the Board to exceed the number of nine (9), then, exclusively for the purpose of this appointment, the maximum number of Directors from the date of such appointments until the next annual general meeting shall be eleven (11).

100. Any vacancy among the Directors which arises for any reason other than the lapse of a Director's term of office, may be filled by appointing another person to fill such vacancy. Such appointment shall be made by the Board. Any vacancy among the Directors filled as aforesaid, shall be valid until the next annual general meeting and the person so appointed shall be automatically eligible for re-election at the next annual general meeting.
101. The Board may appoint from its number a Chairman and a Deputy Chairman who shall hold office for a period of one (1) year unless otherwise decided by a simple majority vote of the Board. Upon termination of his appointment, the Chairman (and the Deputy Chairman, if any) shall be eligible for re-appointment.
102. A person shall not be qualified for appointment or hold office as Director if:
 - (a) he is interdicted or incapacitated; or
 - (b) he becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors, generally; or
 - (c) he has been convicted of any crime punishable by imprisonment; or
 - (d) he is generally precluded from doing so under the provisions of the Act or other applicable law.
103. The Company may, in accordance with article 140 of the Act, remove a Director by ordinary resolution taken at a general meeting at any time prior to the expiration of his term of office.

PROVIDED that such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim such Director may have for damages for breach of any contract of service, or contract for services, between him and the Company in the event that any such contract of service or contract for services is terminated. The vacancy created by the removal of a Director in terms of this Article shall be filled by the Board in compliance with Article 100.

104. Without prejudice to the provisions of the Act, the office of a Director shall ipso facto be vacated:
 - (a) if, by notice in writing to the Company, he resigns from the office of Director; or
 - (b) if he absents himself from the meetings of the Directors for six (6) consecutive meetings without leave of absence from the Directors and the Directors pass a resolution that he has, by reason of such absence, vacated office, or
 - (c) if he is prohibited by law from being a Director, or
 - (d) if he is removed by ordinary resolution from office pursuant to, or otherwise ceases to be a Director by virtue of, the Act; or

- (e) if he becomes of unsound mind, or is convicted of any crime punishable by imprisonment, or declared bankrupt during his term of office

A Director's vacation of office pursuant to this Article shall take effect immediately upon the occurrence of any of the foregoing grounds for vacation. Following such vacation of office a resolution of the Directors declaring a Director to have vacated office as aforesaid shall be conclusive as to the fact and the grounds of vacation stated in the resolution.

- 105. In the event that at any time and for any reason the number of Directors falls below the minimum number established by the Memorandum of Association, notwithstanding the provisions regulating the quorum, the remaining Directors may continue to act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, provided they shall with all convenient speed, and under no circumstances later than three (3) months from the date upon which the number of Directors has fallen below the minimum, convene a general meeting for the sole purpose of appointing the Directors
- 106.
